I am writing to invite you to an entrance conference for a GAO study about Management of Student Aid Contractors -- Security and Privacy. FSA will serve as the lead office on the study. The meeting will be held in Room 112B1 at UCP if you want to attend in person and by conference call at 1:00 PM on July 25. An agenda and an initiation letter are attached.

Here is our call information [in case you would like to participate by conference call]:

Agenda

Initiation letter

Please do not place the call on hold if you participate. The result of that is the Department of Education's "muzak" starts to play, disrupting the phone call. That can cause us to need to hang up and start the call again using a new call number and passcode. Please keep in mind that if you need to take an incoming phone call, you can hang up on the conference call, take the other call, and dial back in to the conference call.

Thank you.

Updating the time again.

Good morning all,

I apologize, there is a last minute conflict and we need to move the time of this meeting.

Thanks,
Martha

Hello Everyone,

I'm writing to invite you to formally participate in the Reform Task Force's work group on "OS, Budget and FY19 Budget Cross-Agency Government Reform Ideas" which I'm leading. Our work will help form the basis for the final recommendation to the Secretary and the Department's Agency Reform Plan that is due to OMB on September 11. We have an aggressive timeline to accomplish our task, but I think it's manageable.

Please be on the lookout for re-occurring calendar invitations for meetings over the next month to meet to our August 15 deadline for reporting. Martha will send agendas and any materials in advance of each meeting. Feel free to reach out if you have any questions.

Many thanks, ebony

Subject: RE: Third Party Service Inquiry- Meeting Request

Kathleen-

Thanks for your response.

We were looking to meet with D.C. policy staff to discuss the Obama Administration's guidance on the Third Party Servicer regulations at 34 CFR 668.2, 668.23 and 668.25. Specifically, in our opinion there is ambiguity in both the guidance and the Department's enforcement of that guidance in some instances that poses a threat to the business of some quality third party servicers. We believe it would be helpful to brief the Department on the issues that we have encountered in the event that a guidance clarification can be issued in the future for the benefit of the servicers and schools, as well as Department staff implementing the rule.

One particular situation that exemplifies this problem is a third party servicer client with a multi-year clean audit record that is now subject to an expansive interpretation of his company's obligations which goes well beyond the scope of his service contracts and the services he provides that have been audited without issue for many years. The previous Administration supported, in our opinion, an overbroad and unclear interpretation of that regulation that poses significant risk and barriers to some third party servicers.

In short, the third party servicer rules have been in place for some time and play a very important goal in safeguarding taxpayer funds, but we have experienced that the previous Administration's guidance and its enforcement based on that guidance may have gone overboard and threatens good operators.

I would be joined in any meeting by my colleague, Katherine Brodie. If we are able to schedule a meeting for the 26th, then our client, Don Grybas of GEMCOR, would also join us.

Subject: Third Party Service Inquiry- Meeting Request

Kathleen,

First, congratulations on your new position. You may recall that we first met at the BDR neg reg. It was heartening to see someone with your experience and background moving to the Department.

I'm actually reaching out to you on behalf of a client with a Third Party Servicer policy question. He will be in town on Wednesday, July 26th and we were hoping to schedule a meeting with the appropriate person at the Department. Would you be able to properly direct my request? I sincerely appreciate your assistance.

With regards,
Kristina

Subject Anti-Semitism pre-brief
Location OLCA conference room
Show Time As Busy

Pre-meet for briefing with the House taskforce for Combatting Anti-Semitism. I have reached out for specific questions, but the original request is below – for reference.

Ms. Ros-Lehtinen is one of the 8 co-chairs on the House's Bipartisan Taskforce for Combating Anti-Semitism. Last year, the Taskforce, along with 30 other Members, wrote this HYPERLINK "https://teddeutch.house.gov/uploadedfiles/2016.4.18_bipartisan_task_force_for_combating_anti-semitism_-_letter_to_department_of_education.pdf" bipartisan letter to then Secretary King regarding Department guidelines with respect to religious-based discrimination.

In 2004, the U.S. Department of Education Office for Civil Rights (OCR) clarified its interpretation of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, including protections for groups of students on the basis of their actual or perceived shared ancestry or ethnic characteristics, regardless of whether they are members of a faith community, as in the case for Jewish, Sikh, and Muslim students. The Department reiterated this policy again in 2010 and 2015.

However, the Taskforce became concerned with HYPERLINK "https://www.nytimes.com/2017/06/16/us/politics/ed ucation-department-civil-rights-betsy-devos.html?smprod=nytcore-ipad&smid=nytcore-ipad-share" recent reports that the OCR office is scaling back on civil rights investigations. With that in mind, Taskforce staff would like to request a briefing from a representative of OCR to address the intent of the scale back, how that would impact cases of religiously-based bias on college campuses, and its overall work on anti-Semitism on campus.

Let me know if you have questions before the pre-meet. I will send the list of members of the taskforce. This is a STAFF LEVEL briefing, not member level.

Thank you,

Molly

Dear Bob,
Emmett and I are looking forward to our meeting Thursday, 1:00PM. I have asked Eagle Forum VP of Government Relations to join us. Hope that is OK. She served as Eagle Forum's Capitol Hill Executive Director for about 10 years before her marriage and move to Virginia, where she practices law with her husband. She has re-engaged as a volunteer with Eagle Forum and frequently returns to the Capitol for meetings.
Bless you!!

Please do not place the call on hold if you participate. The result of that is the Department of Education's "muzak" starts to play, disrupting the phone call. That can cause us to need to hang up and start the call again using a new call number and passcode. Please keep in mind that if you need to take an incoming phone call, you can hang up on the conference call, take the other call, and dial back in to the conference call.

The purpose of this Quarterly Performance Review (QPR) is for Department leaders to discuss People and Organizational Development (POD) across the agency. As we move to eliminate the Organizational Performance Review (OPR) and integrate all performance management activities under the QPRs, we will use this meeting to highlight POD trends and best practices. Thank you!

Sincerely,
Erin

Bob and Ebony

I wasn't sure whether you had thoughts about the agenda for Monday's meeting. I pulled this one together with OGC's input. If you have any edits, can you advise by noon Monday?

Agenda
Immediate Issues-Hurricane Extensions of expiring funds: 15 Mins
Overview of Katrina, Rita, and LA flooding: funding and program inventory: 10 Mins
Discussion of these responses: 20 Mins
Were these programs comprehensive to address the long-term recovery needs of these populations?
What was missing?
Did any of these programs have unintended impacts that we would seek to mitigate?
Initial programs that we would propose recommending to the Secretary: 10 Mins
Broader waiver authority for k-12, similar to the broader waiver authority we are considering for postsecondary education
Next Steps and Questions: 5 Mins

Per the voicemail message I left for you, unfortunately, Jason will not be able to meet with national private school leaders next Weds from 12:15 – 12:45 p.m. here at the Department. Joe recommended I reach out to you to ask if you might be available. We informed the private school leaders that senior career and political leadership would attend.

Location WDCFB6-3C100
Show Time As Busy

Colleagues,

I am sad to announce the pending departure of our colleague, Dr. Monique Chism, the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy and Programs in the Office of Elementary and Secondary Education. Monique's last official day will be on September 30, 2017. As you know, Monique has been a great colleague, leader, thought partner and contributor to our mission at ED for over five years, leveraging her past experiences as an educator, consultant and state education administrator, which has helped her bring a refreshing perspective and relevance to the work we do. While losing her from ED is a big loss indeed, I am happy that Monique will be continuing in education-related work. She has accepted a position at the American Institutes for Research as a Vice-President for Policy, Practice, & Systems Change. I have no doubt that she will have an indelible presence there, just as she has had such significant impact and influence here at ED.

We are hosting a dessert reception to honor Monique and to allow for the staff and others around ED to share well wishes with her. The reception will be held on next Thursday, September 28, 2017, between 1:30-3:00 p.m., in OESE, Conference Room 3C100.

Thanks,

MW

Colleagues:

Joe, Phil, and I would like to discuss at the October 10 meeting the attached list of questions and develop teams to address, as flexibly as possible, these items, perhaps in a FAQ that could be distributed to the public. I know that some of you have seen this list already.

Thanks for your attention to this.

FY 2018-22 Strategic Plan Goal Leaders Meeting

AGENDA
Background
For the past year, career staff participated in several working group meetings to develop the framework and initial draft of the FY 2018-22 Strategic Plan, which is with OMB for review.
The FY 2018-22 Strategic Plan needs to represents the Secretary's vision and what she wants to accomplish during this time period.

Our next step is to establish meaningful metrics and ambitious performance targets that we can use to demonstrate progress and hold ourselves accountable – both internally and to the public.
We need political and career leaders to be involved to establish direction for the goal teams and contributing POCs and ensure that the plan continues to support the Secretary's vision.

Meeting Name: MEETING: Agudath Israel of America
Purpose: To discuss a potential BDV visit to a Jewish school and discuss recently submitted comments and suggestions for reducing or changing regulations related to non-public K-12 and higher education.
Date: November 7th 1:30PM-2PM
Location: Jason's Office

ATTENDEES
Rabbi A. D. Motzen
Rabbi Abba Cohen

AGENDA
1. Jewish school visit – when we met with the Secretary in March, we raised the possibility of a visit to a Jewish school and there has been positive reaction to the idea. We would like to discuss the "kind" of school in our community would best fit the bill for a positive and productive experience.

2. Tax scholarship – we were invited to a WH meeting in the spring with the Secretary and Kellyanne Conway to discuss the President's school choice proposal. We would like to follow up on where the Department's thinking is now on what that bill should look like and the best strategy to pursue it.
3. ESSA issues – I am attaching the comments we submitted in September in response to the RFC on Ed Department regulations -- not for you to read in depth and analyze – but to give you an idea of the range of our concerns and the nature of our activity in this area. Depending on time, we would perhaps highlight one or two of these issues.

Dear Colleagues,

Please join me on Thursday, November 16, from 10:00 to 11:00 a.m. (Eastern Time), in Barnard Auditorium for an All Staff meeting and the official kick-off of this year's Combined Federal Campaign (CFC).

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

This meeting will encourage you to "Show Some Love" and seek out charitable causes that you may identify with and can support as the holiday season approaches. This will also be a good opportunity to meet and hear updates from our new senior staff members throughout the Department.

I look forward to seeing many of you there.

Thanks,
Betsy

Subject: Two meeting requests from Louisiana for next week: Board of Regents staff to discuss drawing down funds and 20 Student Body Presidents to discuss discuss HEA, college affordability, and protections student loan borrowers

Good morning Mr. Kissel and Mr. Brogan,

The Louisiana Board of Regents staff is requesting a meeting (24th or 25th of next week) with ED staff about how the Board of Regents can aggressively pursue any opportunities to draw down ED funds for public postsecondary institutions. This meeting would be with Matt Adams, Assistant Commissioner for Policy & Legislative Affairs, and a few other Regents staff. Jim Manning recommended that you two take this meeting. Is this something you would be interested in? If so, I can work with your schedulers to lock in a time.

Mr. Kissel, 20 Louisiana Student Body Presidents will be in town as well and would like to meet with ED staff on the 26th at noon. They would like to discuss HEA, college affordability, and protections student loan borrowers (borrower defense, servicing bid process, etc). Kathleen recommended that you and Lynn meet with the students. I can also identify someone in FSA as well regarding loan servicing.

Mr. Eitel, Jim mentioned you might want to attend if your schedule permits.

Thank you in advance for considering this request and I look forward to working with you and you staff on these meetings.

Sincerely,

Sam

Colleagues:

This confirms that we will proceed with the January RRTF meeting on Thursday, January 25 from 2-3. You may have on your calendar another RRTF meeting in Room 6E-251. That is a stale invitation that I will shortly cancel to clean up our calendars. The attached is the correct invite.

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

At the January 25 meeting, each POC should be prepared to provide the following:

• A brief overview of its preparations to respond to the House oversight letter
• A brief overview of the number, type, and content of the comments received from the public relating to the POC
o Please pay particular attention to those comments with thoughtful, helpful ideas and policy proposals
o Please think how your POC might use these comments as a basis for regulatory relief in certain areas

Elizabeth and Hilary will also discuss the Spring 2018 Unified Agenda, and Hilary and Alisa will give us an update on the regulatory review website refresh.

We'll also have an update on the agenda for the February meeting, as well as on continued steps for our review effort.

Thanks,
Bob

Colleagues:

Welcome to the refreshed Regulatory Reform Task Force! Elizabeth, Hilary, and I would like to inform you about a few new developments and to provide several reminders.

Membership. I have attached an updated membership list to take into account recent arrivals and departures. I ask that you not forward this invitation to others without prior approval from Elizabeth and me. Given the lower frequency of the Task Force meetings (see below), we would appreciate you making every effort to attend in person. We realize that there are unavoidable conflicts (negotiated rulemaking, Hill meetings, etc.), but the expectation is that each member will attend monthly meetings of the RRTF. Obviously, you will continue to work with your staffs internally within your POC.

Meetings. The Task Force will meet monthly (fourth Thursdays) (or as needed). Accordingly, I have cancelled the weekly recurring invitation and replaced it with this one. In this manner, we will cut down on the number of cancelled meetings and focus everyone's energies on a single monthly meeting.

Next Steps. With regard to ongoing activity, our next steps are for the agency to complete its response to the House Government & Oversight Committee request for information concerning guidance (ideally, by late January) and for each POC to complete its review of regulatory review comments from the public. At the January 25 meeting, each POC should be prepared to provide the following:

A brief overview of its response to the oversight letter
A brief overview of the number, type, and content of the comments received from the public relating to the POC
Please pay particular attention to those comments with thoughtful,

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

helpful ideas and policy proposals
Please think how your POC might use these comments as a basis for regulatory relief in certain areas

Hilary and Alisa are also working on ways to refresh and renew the Department's Regulatory Reform website and will provide a brief update on that project.

Unified Agenda. I have attached the most recent Unified Agenda . As you know, the Unified Agenda publishes twice a year—generally the Spring Agenda publishes in April and the Fall Agenda in October. As we have discussed previously, if you wish to publish a rule (including a proposed rule or rescission), you must include an entry for it in the most recent agenda. So, if you plan to publish a rule between April and October, you would need to include an entry for it in the Spring Agenda. We will be requesting information from you for the Spring Agenda at the end of February/beginning of March. Please work with your staff to be prepared to respond to these requests. This is a critical matter —the Department's proposed Strategic Plan and related performance metrics with OMB take these items into account.

Please let us know if you have any questions. Many thanks for your work on this important project.

Regards,
Bob

Good morning Bob/Elizabeth,

Is there a good time I could come over this week or next to pick your brains about risks to Strategic Goal 4, especially Objective 4.1?

As a follow-up to the conversations we started in November, our OCFO team has been working to expand the risk profile based on the new Strategic Plan. I'd like to share what we have and get your thoughts on what may be missing. I'd bring 1 or 2 of the staff helping on this.

RRTF Membership Updated.pdf
Show Time As Busy

Colleagues:

Welcome to the refreshed Regulatory Reform Task Force! Elizabeth, Hilary, and I would like to inform you about a few new developments and to provide several reminders.

Membership. I have attached an updated membership list to take into account recent arrivals and departures. I ask that you not forward this invitation to others without prior approval from Elizabeth and me. Given the lower frequency of the Task Force meetings (see below), we would appreciate you making every effort to attend in person. We realize that there are unavoidable conflicts (negotiated rulemaking, Hill meetings, etc.), but the expectation is that each member will attend monthly meetings of the RRTF. Obviously, you will continue to work with your staffs internally within your POC.

Meetings. The Task Force will meet monthly (fourth Thursdays) (or as needed). Accordingly, I have cancelled the weekly recurring invitation and replaced it with this one. In this manner, we will cut down on the number of cancelled meetings and focus everyone's energies on a single monthly meeting.

Next Steps. With regard to ongoing activity, our next steps are for the agency to complete its response to the House Government & Oversight Committee request for information concerning guidance (ideally, by late January) and for each POC to complete its review of regulatory review comments from the public. At the January 25 meeting, each POC should be prepared to provide the following:

A brief overview of its response to the oversight letter
A brief overview of the number, type, and content of the comments

AMERICAN OVERSIGHT

received from the public relating to the POC
Please pay particular attention to those comments with thoughtful, helpful ideas and policy proposals
Please think how your POC might use these comments as a basis for regulatory relief in certain areas

Hilary and Alisa are also working on ways to refresh and renew the Department's Regulatory Reform website and will provide a brief update on that project.

Unified Agenda. I have attached the most recent Unified Agenda . As you know, the Unified Agenda publishes twice a year—generally the Spring Agenda publishes in April and the Fall Agenda in October. As we have discussed previously, if you wish to publish a rule (including a proposed rule or rescission), you must include an entry for it in the most recent agenda. So, if you plan to publish a rule between April and October, you would need to include an entry for it in the Spring Agenda. We will be requesting information from you for the Spring Agenda at the end of February/beginning of March. Please work with your staff to be prepared to respond to these requests. This is a critical matter —the Department's proposed Strategic Plan and related performance metrics with OMB take these items into account.

Please let us know if you have any questions. Many thanks for your work on this important project.

Regards,
Bob

Thank you to those who were able to make the listening session with Bryan Caplan this week, we had a really great conversation. Ryan Craig (bio HYPERLINK "http://universityventures.com/team.php" here) had earlier asked for an opportunity to share some thoughts with a few staff members and, since his work is so complementary to Bryan's, I think he'd make for a good follow up. He was a participant in our Rethinking Higher Ed session and is the author of a new book coming out in June titled, A New U. - Faster + Cheaper Alternatives to College. Feel free to share with others.

RRTF Membership Updated.pdf
Show Time As Busy

Colleagues:

Welcome to the refreshed Regulatory Reform Task Force! Elizabeth, Hilary, and I would like to inform you about a few new developments and to provide several reminders.

Membership. I have attached an updated membership list to take into account recent arrivals and departures. I ask that you not forward this invitation to others without prior approval from Elizabeth and me. Given the lower frequency of the Task Force meetings (see below), we would appreciate you making every effort to attend in person. We realize that there are unavoidable conflicts (negotiated rulemaking, Hill meetings, etc.), but the expectation is that each member will attend monthly meetings of the RRTF. Obviously, you will continue to work with your staffs internally within your POC.

Meetings. The Task Force will meet monthly (fourth Thursdays) (or as needed). Accordingly, I have cancelled the weekly recurring invitation and replaced it with this one. In this manner, we will cut down on the number of cancelled meetings and focus everyone's energies on a single monthly meeting.

Next Steps. With regard to ongoing activity, our next steps are for the agency to complete its response to the House Government & Oversight Committee request for information concerning guidance (ideally, by late January) and for each POC to complete its review of regulatory review comments from the public. At the January 25 meeting, each POC should be prepared to provide the following:

A brief overview of its response to the oversight letter
A brief overview of the number, type, and content of the comments received from the public relating to the POC
Please pay particular attention to those comments with thoughtful, helpful ideas and policy proposals
Please think how your POC might use these comments as a basis for regulatory relief in certain areas

Hilary and Alisa are also working on ways to refresh and renew the Department's Regulatory Reform website and will provide a brief update on that project.

Unified Agenda. I have attached the most recent Unified Agenda . As you know, the Unified Agenda publishes twice a year—generally the Spring Agenda publishes in April and the Fall Agenda in October. As we have discussed previously, if you wish to publish a rule (including a proposed rule or rescission), you must include an entry for it in the most recent agenda. So, if you plan to publish a rule between April and October, you would need to include an entry for it in the Spring Agenda. We will be requesting information from you for the Spring Agenda at the end of February/beginning of March. Please work with your staff to be prepared to respond to these requests. This is a critical matter —the Department's proposed Strategic Plan and related performance metrics with OMB take these items into account.

Please let us know if you have any questions. Many thanks for your work on this important project.

Regards,
Bob

Hope you are doing well. I am Senator Grassley's new bankruptcy counsel.

I wanted to reach out on the Department of Education's new request for information regarding undue hardship claims in bankruptcy proceedings.

Is there someone at the DOE that I can discuss this with? Just looking for some more background.

All the best,

Ryan

Colleagues:

Welcome to the refreshed Regulatory Reform Task Force! Elizabeth, Hilary, and I would like to inform you about a few new developments and to provide several reminders.

Membership. I have attached an updated membership list to take into account recent arrivals and departures. I ask that you not forward this invitation to others without prior approval from Elizabeth and me. Given the lower frequency of the Task Force meetings (see below), we would appreciate you making every effort to attend in person. We realize that there are unavoidable conflicts (negotiated rulemaking, Hill meetings, etc.), but the expectation is that each member will attend monthly meetings of the RRTF. Obviously, you will continue to work with your staffs internally within your POC.

Meetings. The Task Force will meet monthly (fourth Thursdays) (or as needed). Accordingly, I have cancelled the weekly recurring invitation and replaced it with this one. In this manner, we will cut down on the number of cancelled meetings and focus everyone's energies on a single monthly meeting.

Next Steps. With regard to ongoing activity, (b)(5)
(b)(5)

A brief overview of its response to the oversight letter
A brief overview of the number, type, and content of the comments received from the public relating to the POC
(b)(5)

Hilary and Alisa are also (b)(5)
(b)(5) and will provide a brief update on that project.

Unified Agenda. I have attached the most recent Unified Agenda . As you know, the Unified Agenda publishes twice a year—generally the Spring Agenda publishes in April and the Fall Agenda in October. As we have discussed previously, if you wish to publish a rule (including a proposed rule or rescission), you must include an entry for it in the most recent agenda. So, if you plan to publish a rule between April and October, you would need to include an entry for it in the Spring Agenda. We will be requesting information from you (b)(5)
(b)(5) . Please work with your staff to be prepared to respond to these requests. (b)(5)
(b)(5)

Please let us know if you have any questions. Many thanks for your work on this important project.

Regards,
Bob

This is a pre-briefing for the meeting scheduled on Monday, May 14.

The House and Senate appropriations subcommittee staff have requested a briefing/call on OCR staffing – specifically "current and planned actions by OCR to add staff per the explanatory statement and funding increase for the office." The language referred to is below and is from the Explanatory Statement that accompanied the Department of Education Appropriations Act, 2018, (which is the ED portion of the Omnibus).

Office for Civil Rights.—The agreement includes $117,000,000 for the Office for Civil Rights (OCR). The OCR is directed in fiscal year 2018 to use this appropriation to increase its level of full time equivalent employment in order to effectively and timely investigate complaints; execute and report on the civil rights data collection; thoroughly monitor corrective actions of institutions and meet other critical workloads. Further, OCR is directed to maintain its 12 regional offices consistent with the organizational structure described in its fiscal year 2018 and 2019 Justification of Appropriation Estimates to the Congress.

Subject Meeting w/Andrew Lauer of Yeshiva University
Location WDCFB6-7E312
Show Time As Busy

I am contacting you on behalf of HYPERLINK "https://www.yu.edu/about"Yeshiva University of New York City. Andrew J. Lauer, Vice President for Legal Affairs at Yeshiva University, would like to meet with you on Tuesday, June 12th to brief you on the exciting educational and outreach initiatives the university is undertaking in the New York metropolitan area and abroad. Yeshiva University serves as a model for how private, faith-based universities are transforming post-secondary education. Mr. Lauer is excited to share YU's story with you and your team at the Department of Education.

Sincerely,

Paul Marcone

Background on Yeshiva University

Yeshiva University is the world's premier Jewish institution for higher education. Yeshiva University's students study at four campuses: Wilf Campus (500 West 185th Street), Israel Henry Beren Campus (245 Lexington Avenue) and Brookdale Center (55 Fifth Avenue) in Manhattan, and the Jack and Pearl Resnick Campus in the Bronx (Eastchester Road and Morris Park Avenue). The undergraduate schools offer a unique dual curriculum comprising Jewish studies and liberal arts and sciences courses, and Y.U.'s graduate and affiliate schools offer tremendous opportunities for graduate and professional studies. While part of a multifaceted University community, each school retains the intimate character of a smaller institution.

What it is...

Security Update 2017-002 for Apple Mac OS will be distributed to Apple Mac workstations on July 27, 2017, so that the machines remain compliant with Department security requirements. Additionally, there will be an update for Microsoft OneDrive for Business to version 17.3.6919. Those workstations that don't have OneDrive for Business currently will have it installed.

Impact upon you...

The 2017-002 patch will install in the background and when finished, end users will be then be prompted for a reboot within 8 hours. The update will also be advertised in the Self Service app, so if a user wishes to run it themselves before prompted, they can.

The update to the OneDrive Client is part of the Microsoft OneDrive project. No reboot is required. The OneDrive app will be added to the Self Service app also. New users will need to follow the existing OneDrive setup in the HYPERLINK "https://connected.ed.gov/educate/Documents/OneDrive%20Business%20Job%20Aid%20for%20Mac.docx" OneDrive for Business Job Aid for Macs.

The Dwight D. Eisenhower Memorial Commission and the General Services Administration will be the Department of Education's guests on Thursday, September 14 at 2 p.m. to provide an update on the Eisenhower Memorial (Memorial).

For those who are not familiar with the planning for the Memorial, the selected site includes the plaza area in front of the Department of Education Building. Construction of the Memorial, designed by noted architect Frank Gehry, is expected to kick off this fall. Come to the Town Hall Meeting and learn more about this important project, and about the impacts and benefits to the Department of Education that it will bring. There will be an opportunity to ask questions at the end of the presentation.

Attendees: Lee Rubenstein, Vice President of Business Development, edX
TOPIC: To discuss how edX, the non-profit established by Harvard and MIT five years ago, is leading the transformative digital learning approach to education, what that means in terms of the Secretary's stated mission, and how we can best advise and deploy at a fractional cost to reach millions of underserved and overcharged learners of all ages in the US.

I have attached the following materials:
Anant Agarwal's original introduction letter requesting a meeting with Secretary DeVos
DOE Meeting Request Form
Bios for Anant Agarwal & Lee Rubenstein
Current edX media kit
HYPERLINK "https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rYwTA5RA9eU" Link to Anant Agarwal's TED talk
HYPERLINK "http://www.cc.com/video-clips/zwqhae/the-colbert-report-anant-agarwal" Link to Anant Agarwal's appearance on Colbert Report

Items for edX Discussion with Secretary DeVos:

Prof Anant Agarwal, MIT Professor and CEO of the non-profit learning platform HYPERLINK "http://www.edx.org/" www.edX.org which was founded jointly by Harvard and MIT, will be coming to discuss his views on the digital transformation of education in this country and the opportunity we have to exponentially improve access to the best learning for all classrooms via HYPERLINK "https://www.edx.org/" edX.org and the edX open source platform, at a fraction of the cost of what was previously possible. As background, edX now includes over 1200 courses from a majority of the world's top 100 Universities who are edX Members, and who are contributing courses to improve access to education for all as part of a global mission.

Designed to maximize learner outcomes, edX is already being deployed by teachers and schools around the country at no charge, and Anant has great aspirations to impact more lives by supporting the Secretary's stated vision for improving US education. We are 5 years old and just beginning but already have a full portfolio of AP prep courses, teacher training courses, TOEFL prep courses, a Global Freshman Academy of courses on edX for college credit, college and professional education courses, and even courses on coding for kids. The edX world class technology is deeply proven and deployed at global scale to over 14 million registered learners of all ages, who have taken 35 million course instances to date generating many terabytes of keystroke data that has informed some powerful insights we want to share with the Secretary where we believe it aligns with her stated mission. We plan to briefly cover the edX story, mission, and vision with Secretary DeVos, where we believe there are opportunities that will provide large scale improvements at fractional cost, and we will hope to get her thoughts and feedback on how we may be able to work together to align with her goals to drive innovation and improvement across our educational systems.

Good morning, Joshua,

Secretary DeVos is one of the 3 signatories required on the Department's annual Management Representation Letter (the others are Mr. Conaty and Ms. Ham). Tim Soltis (delegated CFO) his staff would like to provide a briefing on this process for the Secretary and yourself. Is it possible to coordinate this meeting for the first week in September?

Thank you in advance,
Carolyn

Hello All,

The subject invite is being updated to reflect the new room location.

Thanks,
Valarie

Due to a recent schedule conflict, our meeting is being moved from Monday, November 13, 2017 to Tuesday, November 14, 2017. Also, the room location has been updated. Please let me know if you have any questions. Thanks.

Hello ERB members,

Given our timeline to complete the SES Performance Review Board (PRB) activities and commitment to share the PRB recommendations with you prior to requesting the Secretary's review, we will need to meet a little bit earlier than planned. Therefore, this meeting invite replaces the ERB meeting scheduled for November 27th and I will be sending a cancellation for the November 27th meeting shortly.

Thanks,
Valarie

Dear Colleagues,

Please join me on Thursday, November 16, from 10:00 to 11:00 a.m. (Eastern Time), in Barnard Auditorium for an All Staff meeting and the official kick-off of this year's Combined Federal Campaign (CFC).

This meeting will encourage you to "Show Some Love" and seek out charitable causes that you may identify with and can support as the holiday season approaches. This will also be a good opportunity to meet and hear updates from our new senior staff members throughout the Department.

I look forward to seeing many of you there.

Thanks,
Betsy

Colleagues:

This confirms that we will proceed with the January RRTF meeting on Thursday, January 25 from 2-3. You may have on your calendar another RRTF meeting in Room 6E-251. That is a stale invitation that I will shortly cancel to clean up our calendars. The attached is the correct invite.

We'll also have an update on the agenda for the February meeting, as well as on continued steps for our review effort.

Thanks,
Bob
